

Community partners that develop the whole student-athlete

Attendance

Harrison Hoopsters had a 95% attendance rate during the basketball season

Academics

Harrison Hoopsters had an average of 5% higher scores in classes compared to students not playing basketball

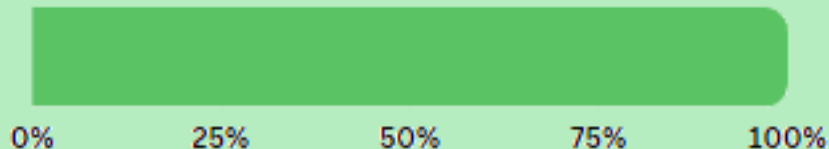

The logo for Hillside Connection, featuring the word 'HILLSIDE' in a bold, stylized font with a grey banner effect.

• CONNECTION •™

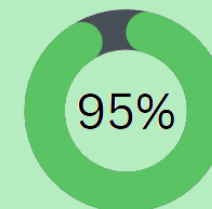

Social, Emotional Health

100% of parents agree they have seen an improvement in their child's leadership and accountability

Behavior

147 of 155 (95%) of Harrison Hoopsters had zero office referrals during the basketball season

Quotes straight from the source:

Parents

“Sometimes they won, other times they had a learning opportunity; each day on the court was just as valuable.”

Coaches

“The league was very well run and organized. Watching the kids improve and giving them a competitive experience was the best part about being a coach.”

Players

“I looked forward to the games and practice since it helped me develop as a player and as a person.”

Harrison District 2 Leadership

“D2 values our partnership with Hillside Connection and the opportunity we were able to provide our elementary students ahead of middle school athletics.”